HEIR TO $50,000,000

Continues to Live in Two-Room Flat
And Goes to Work at 9 a. m.

Regularly

New York, Aug. 18.—Arthur T. Walker, former clerk, is having quite a run on the front pages of New York newspapers. Walker recently was made legatee of the $50,000,000 residuary estate of Edward F. Searles, of Massachusetts, and New York is unable to understand how it happens that a man with an income around $10,000 a day should continue to live in a two-room flat in Brooklyn and go to work every morning at 9 o'clock. That, it appears, is what Walker does.

Interviewers have been scouring Manhattan and Brooklyn for Walker, but he is said to have gone on a vacation, or something, to avoid reporters. Walker was formerly a clerk in Searles' employ, and later became director and vice-president of the Pittsburgh and Shawmut Railroad, which Searles owned.

Now, under Searles' will, Walker is chief owner of this road, as well as other properties in Pennsylvania, to say nothing of Union Pacific Railroad securities estimated at several million dollars and a batch of stock in the New York Globe.

UNCLE SAM'S BOYS FAR IN FRONT AT ANTWERP

Antwerp, Belgium, Aug. 18.—Six events of the twenty-one listed under the head of athletics have been completed in the Olympic games, and if the United States keeps scoring as it is scoring just now it will gain the biggest triumph in the history of the revival of the classic competitions. The athletes from America have scored 68 1-2 points—more than twice as many as those from Finland, who are second with 34. Americans have scored only seventeen points less than the representatives of all the other nations combined.

England has done very well and has scored 19 points to gain third place. Sweden, the disappointment of the games, is fourth with 13 1-2 and France is fifth with 12. South Americans have scored 4, Estonia 2 and Norway 1.

The six events which have been completed and the winning nations are Running jump, America; 400 meter hurdles, America; 100 meter dash, America; 800 meter run, England; 5,000 meter run, France; Pentathlon, Finland.

COX SCORES PEACE PLAN OF HARDING

Says Separate Pact With Germany Would Be Per-fidious Act

NEED NO DEFENSE

Declares Democrats Not Unbending
on League Reservation—Calls it
Wilful Untruth.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 18.—In addressing the Ohio Democratic Convention here today, Governor Cox, the party's Presidential candidate, scored Senator Harding, the Republican nominee, as "reactionary," denounced what he termed Mr. Harding's plan for a separate peace with Germany, but said that the Democratic position on the League of Nations reservations was not "unbending."

"The San Francisco platform," said Governor Cox, "gives us the right to enter the League on terms that need no defense."

"Our position is not unbending. We claim that we can accept anything (in reservations) that interprets, that calls attention of the limitations of our Constitution; that calls attention of the other nations that we will go thus far and no farther."

The League issue was featured by Governor Cox and also in the address of Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, and that of Senator Allee Pomerene, of Ohio.

"Perfectly perfidious act" and "dishonorable deed" were among terms applied by Governor Cox to the separate peace proposal, and the convention gave him ovation after ovation as he proceeded.

The separate peace issue, Governor Cox declared, "will remain in the public mind."

"This, after all," he continued, "is the crux of the situation. The reactionary candidate promises you nothing but a proposal which, at its best, promises nothing but months and possibly years of delay. On the other hand, we promise you this—that after the 4th of March, with the least amount of conversation possible we'll enter the League."

The Democratic candidate denounced particularly the Republican argument that the League would increase probability of war. Denying also that the League could order American soldiers overseas, Governor Cox continued:

"The Republican leaders, in declaring that four or five potentates overseas can order our soldiers anywhere, are speaking a deliberate and wilful untruth."

At this point the governor spoke with great deliberation, adding:

Presidential proprieties require that they do not characterize it in stronger terms."

Alexandria Volunteer Firemen Appeal For Help

The finance committee appointed by the local fire department to raise funds to entertain the visiting volunteer firemen attending the Virginia State Firemen's Convention and Tournament, August 25-26-27, have sent by mail a personal appeal to nearly three hundred of Alexandria's representative citizens requesting a small donation of $10.00 to this worthy cause. So far only sixty have responded.

The local volunteer firemen feel that their needs on this particular occasion should meet with a unanimous response as they stand ready to respond to fight fire in every citizen's home or place of business should fire occur, and on a moment's notice, and do so without any pay for their service, and if you appreciate their readiness to serve you, please mail your check today to K. W. Ogden, Chief, Alexandria Fire Department, and the Alexandria Firemen will feel as grateful to you as you would to them, should you need them.

HOUSING SITUATION

Committee at its Wits End to Solve
Problem of Handling Immense
Throng Expected Here.

A number of workmen are rapidly dressing Alexandria up for its big week which starts officially next Wednesday, but which really starts Monday as a number of out of town fire companies have announced their intention of coming on that day with a complete camping outfit.

The housing question is very serious, because the great number of firemen coming exceeds by hundreds the number originally expected. The committee on accommodation are at their wits end trying to solve the problem of where to secure additional rooms. All persons having one or more rooms that could possibly be rented for a few days should get in touch with the chairman, Claude Fletcher.

The financial question has not been solved as yet, as the sum needed is $3,000 and but $2,000 of this has been secured. Considering the splendid fire department that we have here and the high class standard of its members, it is difficult to understand why the committee has not met with more generous donations. An appeal for more funds appeared in the Gazette last night and it is hoped that when the people of Alexandria understand what the committee is up against that the balance will be secured without any trouble.

The big crowd should result in big business to the merchants of this city as convention crowds are known to be spenders.

Headquarters will be established at Chief Ogden's Office early next week where all official business will be transacted.

REJECTED SUITOR KILLS ITALIAN GIRL

Lyndhurst, N. J., Aug. 18.—Jumping from a second story window to escape a rejected suitor, Mary Volitto, 19 year old Italian girl, today fell on a picket fence and while crawling away to hide in an abandoned well was shot and killed by him.

The suitor, according to the police, is Pasquale Melone, of Syracuse, N. Y., a traveling salesman. A posse was immediately organized to track down the girl's assailant, who is believed to be hiding in a swamp bordering the Passaic River. Preparations were made to obtain bloodhounds for the chase.

Efforts to locate Melone in the swamp were unavailing, and this afternoon Charles J. McCarthy, assistant prosecutor of Bergen county, said he was certain the man had escaped.

VICTORY OF POLES BY GEN. PILSUDSKI

President of Republic, By Counter Offensive, Relieves Warsaw

REDS DRIVEN BACK

Paris Reports Successful Efforts to Clear Polish Corridor—Premiers
Relieved—Many Prisoners Taken

Warsaw, Aug. 18.—Reports of Polish military successes came to Warsaw today, while the population was eagerly awaiting news from Minsk, where the Polish peace delegates are to negotiate with the representatives of the Russian Soviet Government. The only report of the delegates was a Moscow wireless message stating that the party had arrived in Minsk.

A successful counter-offensive was launched on the Warsaw front yesterday under the leadership of President Pilsudski as commander-in-chief. On the northern front, where 10 Bolshevik divisions are striking toward the Vistula as part of the maneuver against Warsaw, and on the Warsaw front, it was announced today that the Reds have been driven back at several points.

Polish movements, aided by heavy artillery, are forcing the Bolsheviks gradually to withdraw from various places where for days pressure upon the capital has been greatest. In the fighting in the region of Radzymin, northeast of Warsaw, the Poles have taken many prisoners, including a Bolshevik commissar and a brigade commander. During the battle here a Polish chaplain of the Eighth Infantry Division, Ignacy Korupka was killed while leading the attacking forces clad in his church robes and with a crucifix in his hand.

Five Polish officers were also killed and 11 were wounded. French tactics are being used throughout the counter action. The Poles are bringing into play batteries placed for the capital's defense line and are awaiting completion of the arrangements to strike at the soviet forces with a rush of artillery, followed by repeated infantry attacks.

The official Polish communique issued at 6 o'clock this evening, announced that the Russian pressure on the capital had been relieved. The right wing of the Fourth Polish army, in breaking the soviet resistance at Kock (32 miles south of Siedlce), took 200 Russian prisoners and captured one cannon and 14 machine guns.

The communique announces that the Poles, in following up their counter-offensive to relieve the pressure on Warsaw, have advanced along the entire Northern front. They have pushed the Russians beyond the Wkra river and regained Ciechanow. The soviet forces retreated while Polish aviators fired on them with machine guns.

Fighting continues in the region of Radzymin, to the northeast of Warsaw, the statement says.

Paris, Aug. 18.—The French Foreign Office this evening reported successful Polish counter-offensives from Thorn to clear out the Polish corridor and along the entire southern front.

A Geneva dispatch today stated that diplomatic sources had received messages indicating that Warsaw fell yesterday, the Bolsheviks entering the city from the north and northeast. This report, however, is not given any credit here. The American Embassy this morning received a message filed in Warsaw at 2 p. m. yesterday, when all was well in the city.

WHERE ARE THE 'BOLSHEVISTS' TO BE MET?

What the Inquirer has been saying editorially, what Frank H. Simonds said in last Sunday's edition of this journal, that we are facing another world's war, was fully substantiated in the Associated Press dispatch from Kolono, Poland, printed yesterday.

The gist of this dispatch was that the Lenin autocracy intends to overthrow Poland and seek an alliance with Germany; that the combination will then make war on France and subsequently undertake the conquest of England; that when all this is accomplished attention will be given to the United States.

The Associated Press reporter obtained this information first hand. We give full credence to it. The Russian Government is a government of aggression. It cannot live unless it carries its aggression to other countries. It is without honor. It cannot be trusted, as Secretary Colby said the other day in his note to the Italian Ambassador. No government can deal with it, because it will not keep faith. Its aim is the Bolshevization of the world. With Poland under its thumb, there will be no barrier between it and Germany. And there are millions of people in Germany ready to co-operate with it.

The time has gone by when Poland can be saved, except by a miracle. The Allied nations, tired of war, accepted the armistice of 1918 and began to disband their armies. The only great army in existence today is that of the Bolsheviks. Germany is in no position to stop the Russian advance because it has no organized forces. The Allies dare not permit Germany to reorganize because they are suspicious of it. It might protect itself, but it would be more likely to join hands with Lenin and march upon Paris. France fully realizes this, hence her recognition of General Wrangel in South Russia, the one solitary hope today of starting a backfire on Lenin and Trotsky.

Where is the advance of the forces of destruction to be met? Is it possible that nothing practical will be done until they reach the Rhine? There, of course, France will throw her armies against Russia out of pure self defense. But what of England? What of Italy? Truth to tell, the outlook is anything but promising. A weak and wobbling British Premier—Lloyd George—has been doing his best to come to terms with the Lenin dynasty. And yet he is not altogether to be blamed, because England has a labor organization which is honeycombed with Bolshevism. Despite the fact that England Socialists and men high in the confidence of the British unions have investigated Bolshevism and have reported against it, these same unions have registered their hostility to any effort on the part of the British Government to overthrow the Russian Soviets. Not only have they done that, but they have threatened "direct action" if any obstacle is placed in the path of Lenin. "The resolutions do not mean that it is to be a mere strike," says James H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, and one of the important labor chieftains of England. "If they are to be effective, they mean a challenge to the whole constitution of the country." And what does that signify? Nothing but revolution. In other words, if England dares attempt to halt the Lenin marauders and murderers, British labor will start civil war at home.

Apparently the world is powerless against Lenin. Or at least it is living in a fool's paradise. It looks complacently on while the Reds pound Poland to death and open the way for the conquest of Germany. After that—the deluge.

Either we are all going to submit to the doctrines of Bolshevism or the day is coming—and it is not a distant day—when we shall have to fight for our liberties.

WHAT WILL HE DO WITH IT?

Trying to escape the fierce light that beats upon a newly made millionaire, the chief clerk to the Seattle fortune remakes that he has already filled enough space in the papers. "I don't believe the public would be interested in my affairs," he says.

This misconception as to the extent of the interest that attends the curious whims of the fickle goddess Fortune is easily understood. When one has lived quietly, not to say obscurely, for many years a modest estimate of one's importance is inevitable. Mr. Walker doubtless argues that he is the same man he has always been and that his words or acts are of no more consequence than they ever were. But whether he likes to think so or not, he has in fact been suddenly projected into a new world.

It would be idle to deny that environment is a large part of personality. The difference between a thousand a year and ten thousand a year leaves its mark upon the mind of one's ideas or how simple one's tastes, the possession of a fortune compels radical changes of circumstance. Of course the heir to millions might continue to live on any scale he chose and let his money pile up higher. But this would be the spirit of the miser. He can find a golden mean between extravagant ostentation and avoidance of responsibility. All that Mr. Walker has said thus far indicates that he will succeed in this.

What one would do if one inherited a fortune is ever a pleasing subject of speculation. In most cases the reality would be quite different from the dream. The most vivid imagination can hardly prefigure the extent of the change from poverty to riches. To say that it is a test of character is to repeat a truism. It is more certain to be a development of character for better or worse.

HOTEL PRICES TO BE "STANDARDIZED"

Hotel owners are to meet next month to discuss the "standardization" of hotel rates. They will endeavor to settle what constitutes a first class hotel, presumably with the intention of making a financial distinction between first and second. If they can prevent the imposition of high prices for poor accommodations the public will not be ungrateful.

But "standardization" is an ominous word. It usually operates to maintain rather than to diminish charges. The people who demand luxuries should expect to pay for them. What is needed more than anything else in most of our cities is good hotels where plain rooms and food can be had at moderate cost.

REUNION OF VETERANS

To be Held September 4, 5 and 6 at Richmond, Va.

Veterans of the Blue Ridge Division who attend the reunion of the Eightieth Division Veterans' Association in Richmond, Va., on September 4th, 5th and 6th will go to Camp Lee for a picnic and to renew memories of their training days before their memorable plunge into the thick of the fighting overseas. They will return to their barracks at the cantonment, live again the days they spent here three years ago, and mess from the same mess halls.

Major General Omar Bundy, who commanded the American forces at Chateau-Thierry, is commander of Camp Lee and has placed the cantonment at the disposal of the Eightieth Division Veterans. He has promised his hearty co-operation in making the reunion one of the biggest things of its kind ever undertaken, will attend its sessions and will see that the barracks buildings formerly occupied by the veterans are again assigned them for the day for the reunion of the numerous units. Veterans will go to Camp Lee immediately after lunch on Saturday, September 4, the opening day of the reunion, and on their arrival at Camp Lee will gather in the old familiar Liberty Theater, where a short welcome talk will be made by General Bundy. Automobiles will be in waiting and immediately after the men will be taken on a tour of the camp, and will be assigned to the barracks where their unit reunions will be held.

Supper will be served the individual units in their mess halls by the women of Richmond and Petersburg, and there will be a band concert by the combined units now stationed at Camp Lee. After mess the men will select the unit officers who will direct the short parade on Monday. The line of march for the procession will not be of more than twenty minutes duration in order not to tire the veterans.

The start for Camp Lee will be made about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and the men will return to Richmond early in the evening in time to attend the athletic entertainment and carnival to be given by the Virginia Department of the American Legion in the city auditorium.

The opening session of the reunion will be called to order at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, and will adjourn shortly after noon.

The main business session will be held on Monday. Each day brings a reunion headquarters in Richmond the names of additional men who will attend the first annual reunion

DELAYS NAMING RECEIVERS

Belief Growing That Ponzi Is Actually Insane on Money Making

Boston, Aug. 18.—Judge James Morton, in the United States District Court today, took under advisement the petition of the State and of creditors for the appointment of a receiver for Charles Ponzi, the "bushel basket millionaire."

The arguments of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for appointment of a receiver were presented by Attorney General John E. Crowley.

The Attorney-General argued that inasmuch as Ponzi had done business through the Hanover Trust Company, the State had special cause for wishing the appointment of a receiver.

When special attorneys were about to make suggestions as regards the receiver, Judge Morton cut short their arguments by stating that he would not allow any names to be mentioned at present.

Daniel V. McIsaac, counsel for Ponzi, did not take a prominent part in the proceedings. He told Judge Morton that he would neither argue for or against the bankruptcy proceedings at present.

In the meantime Ponzi was still in jail, and there was no indication that his release would be secured today.

THE TEST THAT TELLS

Is the Test of me. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Test

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement, the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Milton Moor, 123 Duke St., gave the following statement on April 13, 1915: "Doan's Kidney Pills are one of our household remedies. I have used Doan's several times when I have had backache and general kidney disorder with very good results. I always recommend anything I know is good and I am sure Doan's are a fine remedy."

On March 14, 1919, Mrs. Moor added: "I praise Doan's Kidney Pills just the same as ever, for they have always been just as represented. If I have the least backache a few of Doan's are sure to give me relief."

PREMIER'S SPEECH DISAPPOINTS IRISH

Boycott on Ulster Urged by Dublin Newspapers as Reprisal

Dublin, Aug. 18.—Disappointment is voiced in the press of Dublin today at the statement made by Premier Lloyd George in the house of commons yesterday relative to settlement of the Irish question.

The discussions center variously upon the three stipulations specified by the premier as a basis for consideration of a settlement. Separate treatment for the six counties of northern Ulster; no secession of any part of Ireland from the United Kingdom, and no agreement involving any detraction from the security of the British Isle or of their safety in case of war.

The Freeman's Journal which had advocated dominion home rule, suggests as a reply to the premier a "financial and commercial boycott of that part of Ulster which is causing all the trouble," a reprisal which it says, already is being enforced to some extent.

NAVY FANCY DIVERS

Did you ever try to turn a "Back flip" from a perch forty feet above the surface of the water? No? Well take a look at this bluejacket doing the edification of the boys on board ship. The officer standing by is evidently finching in an effort to help the sailorman "go over" and right himself before he hits the water.

No fear for this fellow need be offered for he always hits right side up with care and when he is not doing stunts for the benefit of the crew he is only too willing to help the beginner learn to swim.

—AND THEY LIVED HAPPY EVER AFTER

Monday always gave her the "blues." She started the week by scrubbing and rubbing over a miserable wash tub. Her hands would get red and swollen. Her back ached. She was tired and unhappy, and it took two or three days to get over it.

One day he showed her the advertisements about Clean Easy—the wonder wash soap. She read the directions: "Soak your wash over night. Shave 1/2 bar of Clean Easy Naphtholene Wash Soap into a 4 1/2-gallon tub of water. Let it dissolve and bring to boil. Put the clothes in and stir for ten minutes only. Rinse and blue. Every garment is clean and pure!"

She was delighted. No rubbing, no scrubbing—the average week's washing done in ten minutes—without even putting a hand in the tub! She ordered Clean Easy from her grocer that very day.

Now her washing is finished and out on the line before her neighbors are a third through. She has found that Clean Easy cleans cleaner and does not hurt the clothes like a washboard. It is the only real economical way to wash.

Of course, she is happy now. Her hands are white, she doesn't have any more aches and pains.

You can do just what she has done. Simply buy a bar of Clean Easy at your grocer's. Use it according to directions, and you'll be surprised at the wonderful way you can wash clothes.

GOODYEAR

He Lived and Learned

"Bob Currier! By all that's sacred! Where have you concealed yourself these many moons?"

"Hospital, Billy. And say it certainly is good to be out and around again."

"What was the trouble?"

"Oh, the doctors called it some name with nine syllables and a sneeze, but it was nothing more than a clogging of the intestines. The stuff wouldn't move and it was poisoning me—breeding disease."

"What did they do to you?"

"Why, they were all set to operate for appendicitis. The food waste had accumulated in the large intestine where the appendix is. I had bad pains. Tried to cure them with salts. That only shook my system—flushed it hard—and left that poisonous waste there, dryer and harder than ever. Taking a purgative when you're like that is about the same as driving a car up a hill to clean the carbon out of the cylinders; you only make a bad matter worse."

"You said something."

"Finally the doctor said, 'We'll see if we can't move that obstruction naturally before we operate. I don't want to operate unless it's absolutely necessary.'"

"He put me to bed and tried me out on Nujol. Believe me, there was certainly an anxious period of waiting for 'yours truly'. But Nujol proved the goods. It softened that dry mass, moved it on, and after a while I began to be regular."

"Great stuff! How does this Nujol work, anyway?"

"On an entirely new principle. Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This helps all those little muscles along the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system. It prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain thorough bowel movements at regular intervals, which is certainly the best habit I know of. And besides that, it's absolutely harmless and pleasant to take."

"Say—that's just what I've been needing. I've been taking pills and salts for months and getting worse all the time. Jump in and we'll buy a bottle of Nujol right now. Me for that, beginning tonight."

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing the Nujol trade mark. Write the Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 30 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger".

The Modern Method of Treating an Old Complaint

STORY OF BATTLE Scattered Bones on Gallipoli Plain Explain Mystery of Fight

One of the mysteries of the war—the fate of the Fifth Norfolk Territorials in the fighting at Suvla Bay, Gallipoli—has been partly solved.

Sir Ian Hamilton, in his dispatch of the fighting around Anafarta on August 12, 1915, referred to the fate of the battalion as "a very mysterious thing."

On the night of the attack they found themselves less strenuously opposed than the rest of the brigade, and under Colonel Sir H. Beauchamp the men eagerly pressed forward. Some were wounded or exhausted and found their way back to camp.

"But the Colonel, with sixteen officers and 250 men (continued the dispatch) still kept pushing on, driving the enemy before him."

"Among these ardent souls was part of a fine company enlisted from the King's Sandringham estates."

"Nothing more was ever seen or heard of any of them. They charged into the forest and were lost to sight and sound. Not one of them ever came back."

The forest into which the battalion so gallantly charged was never retaken by our troops. The few men who fell into the hands of the Turks, it was afterwards found, had fallen out of the attack earlier, and not a man of Colonel Beauchamp's force was made prisoner.

Rev. C. S. Edwards, M. C., of Mersea Island, has just returned from a visit to the peninsula on graves' registration work. He says that on going over the Anafarta Plain he found skeletons of the men of the Fourth and Fifth Norfolk, Fifth Suffolks and Eighth Hampshires over a mile in front of what was afterwards the first line trench.

Apparently the battalion had advanced in perfect order and to all appearances had been caught by machine gun fire.

One man had taken cover behind a stone, and a large pile of empty cartridge cases round his skeleton showed that he had defended himself to the last.

Just behind the Norfolk front line Mr. Edwards came across the remains of about 50 men who had fallen in a grim hand to hand struggle.

Touching each other lay the bodies of Britons and Turks, the heads of the latter facing seaward and those of the attacker towards their adversaries' lines.

STEALS MILLION IN BONDS Postoffice Thief Makes Big Haul at Chicago

All the bonds were stolen from one pouch while it was in transit through Chicago, enroute from Milwaukee to New York, it is said. Postal authorities here believe loss indicates the operation of a new gang of bond thieves, who are turning their attention to such classes of mail.

COX SCORES PEACE
PLAN OF HARDING

Governor Cox reiterated that Congress only may declare war and asserted that what the reactionary Republican leaders contend would require a Constitutional amendment. After "vigilant study" of Senator Harding's acceptance address, Governor Cox said that he found the statement that has staggered the sensibilities of the world—the unthinkable, monstrous proposal for a separate peace with Germany. "Now that our army is disbanded and the main strength of the Allies scattered," said the Democratic candidate, "he would destroy that pact (the League) and enter into a new covenant."

Sale of Printed Voiles At, a Yard 58c

We illustrated twelve of the most popular patterns in yesterday's paper, but there are many, many others to select from, and there are many greatly varied color combinations of the majority of the patterns, which give additional range of selection.

Weather prophets have predicted continued warm weather for some time to come; therefore you will still need plenty of sheer frocks. Printed voile is the most practical material to make them of.

SAY "DIAMOND DYES"

Don't streak or ruin your material in a poor dye. Insist on "Diamond Dyes." Easy directions in package.

"CORNS"

Lift Right Off Without Pain

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

RICHMOND THEATRE

Douglas MacLean and Doris May are here in their latest picture today. This is "Mary's Ankle." It's even funnier than "Twenty-three and a Half Hours' Leave" and "What's Your Husband Doing?" It is a Paramount Artaft Picture, a Thomas H. Ince production. If you have seen these refreshing stars, you don't need any persuasion. If you haven't—here's your chance!

INGOMAR THEATRE

"Old Lady 31," the quaint comedy of simple folk by Rachel Crothers, starring Emma Dunn, will be the feature picture at the Ingomar Theatre today.

According to the theatre management, this is a "glad" play that will appeal to every class of picture goer. Certain it is that "Old Lady 31" when produced by Lee Kugel on the stage was one of the greatest theatrical successes New York ever saw. It ran for more than a year in the metropolis, and subsequently for long engagements in Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and other large cities. It is even now being played "on the road," so great is its charm and popularity.

SAYS GAMBLERS RULE CITY

Deputy Attorney General Leads Raids at Saratoga Springs
Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 18.—A search for seven alleged gamblers who have fled the jurisdiction of the court has been started by Deputy Attorney General Wyman S. CALOMEL LOSING OUT IN SOUTH

Mr. Dodson, the 'Liver Tone' Man, Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it," Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick once all the next day like violent calomel and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

lar raids early yesterday failed to appear at a hearing and their bail bonds were declared forfeited.

After eleven others caught in the raid had been either held in jail or discharged, Mr. Bascom, in an address to the court, severely condemned the admission to bail of the fugitives. He declared that these were admitted to bail on terms "which virtually amounted to a jail delivery." "It is evident from this," he continued, "that the gambling fraternity is all powerful in the city of Saratoga Springs and that they are mightier than the law."

BROADWAY FOOTLIGHT ARTISTS FIND JOY IN STORE

New York, Aug. 18.—On Broadway, north of Seventy-second street, there is an all night delicatessen store with a paneled backroom that between 1 and 3 a. m., fills with the rarest collection of humans. To preserve order and decorum a "bouncer," six feet three, with curly hair, is kept on the premises.

It is the center of late hour theatrical life, girls from the various shows rolling up in their cars for a nightcap sandwich that cost 90 cents. Here one hears all sides of "inside stuff." Listen. "You know Sam Shipman lost $50,000 in
